It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 36-11-9 of the General Laws in Chapter 36-11 entitled "Organization
2 of State Employees" is hereby amended to read as follows:

3 36-11-9. Binding arbitration — Procedure.

4 (a) All issues remaining in dispute after the procedures for voluntary resolution of issues
5 provided in § 36-11-8 are exhausted shall be referred to final and binding arbitration and decision.
6 An arbitrator shall be selected within fifteen (15) days from lists of certified arbitrators submitted
7 by and in accordance with the rule of the American Arbitration Association, provided, however, 8 that all names so submitted shall be of Rhode Island residents.

9 (b) The arbitrator shall call a hearing to be held within ten (10) days of his or her 10 appointment and shall give at least seven (7) days written notice in writing to the bargaining agent 11 and chief executive of the time and place of the hearing. The hearing shall be informal, and the 12 rules of evidence prevailing in judicial proceedings shall not be binding; provided, however, that a 13 stenographic record of the proceedings shall be kept and transcribed. Any and all documentary 14 evidence and other data deemed relevant by the arbitrator may be received in evidence. The 15 arbitrator shall have the power to administer oaths and to require by subpoena the attendance and 16 testimony of witnesses, the production of books, records, and other evidence relative or pertinent 17 to the issues presented to them for determination.

18 (c) The hearing conducted by the arbitrator shall be concluded within twenty (20) days of

1 the time of commencement, and, within ten (10) days after the conclusion of the hearings, the 2 arbitrator shall make written findings and a written opinion upon the issues presented, a copy of 3 which shall be mailed or otherwise delivered to the bargaining agent or its attorney or other
4 designated representative and the chief executive. The decision of the arbitrator shall be binding 5 upon both the bargaining agent and the chief executive as to all issues and matters other than an 6 issue which involves wages and as to that issue, the decision shall be advisory in nature.

7 (d) While the parties are engaged in negotiations and/or utilizing the dispute resolution 8 process as required in §§ 36-11-7.1, 36-11-8, and subsections (a) through (c) of this section, all
9 terms and conditions in the collective bargaining agreement shall remain in effect. Should either 10 party reject the advisory matters in the decision of the arbitrator, the binding matters shall be 11 implemented. Following the conclusion of the dispute resolution process as required in subsections 12 (a) through (c) of this section, should the parties still be unable to reach agreement, all contractual 13 provisions related to wages contained in the collective bargaining agreement shall continue as 14 agreed to in the expired collective bargaining agreement until such time as a successor agreement 15 has been reached between the parties.

16 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
