"§ 115C-316.1. ~~Duties of school~~ School counselors.

(a) School counselors shall implement a comprehensive developmental school counseling program in their schools. Counselors shall spend at least eighty percent (80%) of their work time providing direct services to students. Direct services do not include the coordination of standardized testing. Direct services shall consist of:

- (1) Delivering the school guidance curriculum through large group guidance, interdisciplinary curriculum development, group activities, and parent workshops.
- (2) Guiding individual student planning through individual or small group assistance and individual or small group advisement.
- (3) Providing responsive services through consultation with students, families, and staff; individual and small group counseling; crisis counseling; referrals; and peer facilitation.
- (4) Performing other student services listed in the Department of Public Instruction school counselor job description that has been approved by the State Board of Education.

(b) School counseling program support activities do not include the coordination of standardized testing. During the remainder of their work time, school counselors may assist other staff with the coordination of standardized testing.

(c) Each public school unit with at least 300 high school students shall employ at least one full-time, permanent school counselor for every 300 high school students in the unit.

(d) The superintendent of a public school unit or, if there is no superintendent, the highest decision-making authority in a public school unit shall ensure that every school in the unit with fewer than 300 students has access to a school counselor for at least two instructional days of each week of the school year.

(e) The State Board of Education shall adopt requirements for professional development for school counselors that include annual training in at least the following areas:

(1) Issues related to student access to colleges and universities.

(2) Policies, processes, and strategies to navigate the admissions process for colleges and universities."

SECTION 2.(b) Effective July 1, 2022, G.S. 115C-316.1, as amended by this section, reads as rewritten:

"§ 115C-316.1. School counselors.
