Presented by Representative FREDETTE of Newport.

1 a completed application. The bill allows for a 15-day extension to the 30-day time frame 2 during a state of emergency or if the number of applications received cannot be reasonably
3 reviewed within that time. Under the bill, if the board does not meet the time frames
4 established for licensing decisions, the Commissioner of Public Safety will assume the 5 board's licensing duties. The bill also requires the board to report annually to the 6 Legislature.
