25 bringing an action in the superior court. In addition to other grounds, a court may 26 declare the adoption, amendment, or repeal of a regulation invalid

28 42.50.190; or

29 (2) if the regulation was adopted under AS 42.50.190, on the grounds

25 hold its employees, agents, and board members harmless from expenses connected 26 with the defense, settlement, or monetary judgments arising from the action, claim, or 27 proceeding. The purchase of insurance is discretionary with the board, and the 28 insurance is not considered to be compensation to the insured person.

30 Sec. 42.50.350. Property leases, easements, permits, and disposals. (a) The 31 corporation may lease, subject to (b) of this section, grant easements in or permits for,

 2 corporation may not convey its entire interest in any of its property, except as provided
 3 by AS 42.50.355, 42.50.370(d), and 42.50.400.

4 (b) If the corporation makes a lease or other disposal of property to a party

 13 AS 42.50.350(b).

14 (c) Before offering property for sale under this section, the corporation shall

 22 the operations and performance report required under AS 42.50.270. The legislature 23 may appropriate money in the account to the corporation for the operation of the 24 corporation. Nothing in this section creates a dedicated fund.

25 Sec. 42.50.360. Request for property. The board may identify land that is 26 necessary or useful for present or future purposes of the Alaska marine highway

 28 including land not contiguous with a ferry terminal facility, if the state owns the land 29 or the land has been tentatively approved for transfer to the state. The request must 30 include a statement of and justification for the present or future corporation use. Upon 31 receipt of a request, the commissioner shall temporarily reserve the land identified in

1 the request for corporation purposes and defer disposal or lease of that land under

 8 subject to valid existing rights, convey the state's interests in the land to the 9 corporation;

10 (2) notify the corporation of reasons for refusal to designate the 11 identified land for corporation purposes; or

12 (3) approve the request in part and convey the part that is approved.

13 (b) A conveyance of property under this section may be for less than the 14 appraised value of the property, as determined by the commissioner of natural 15 resources.

16 (c) In the absence of a reservation to the contrary, a conveyance of land under 17 this section gives to the corporation ownership and control of the surface of the land, 18 the material on and under the surface of the land, and the mineral estate in the land,
 19 including the right to extract or use timber and other construction materials, sand, 20 gravel, and rock, and the right to tunnel, ditch, recontour, excavate, or otherwise use 21 the land for transportation, transmission, communication, and related purposes of the 22 Alaska marine highway system.

7 corporation exercises the power under this section.

9 easement acquired under this chapter by executing and filing a deed in the appropriate 10 recording district.

15 its own name property under the control of a state agency that is useful for the 16 corporation's purposes. The corporation may acquire from the Department of 26 Sec. 42.50.500. Limitation of liability. A person does not have a right of 27 action against the state because of a debt, obligation, or liability of the corporation and 28 may satisfy the debt, obligation, or liability only from the assets or revenue of the 29 corporation.

30 Sec. 42.50.510. Fidelity bond. The corporation may obtain a fidelity bond in 31 an amount determined by the board for board members and each executive officer

1 responsible for accounts and finances. The bond must be in effect during the entire 2 tenure in office of the bonded person.

Sec. 42.50.620. Bonds eligible for investment. Bonds issued under this chapter are securities in which all public officers and public bodies of the state and the state's political subdivisions, all insurance companies, trust companies, banking associations, investment companies, executors, administrators, trustees, and other fiduciaries may properly invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. These bonds may be deposited with a state or municipal officer of an agency or political subdivision of the state for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds of the state is authorized by law.

Sec. 42.50.630. Payment of bonds. (a) The principal of and interest on bonds of the corporation are payable from corporation money or assets. Bonds may be additionally secured by a pledge of a grant or contribution from the federal government, a municipality, a corporation, an association, an institution, or a person, or a pledge of money, income, or revenue of the corporation from any source.

(b) Before issuing bonds to provide the financing described in AS 42.50.600 for real or personal property to be owned in whole or in part by an entity other than the corporation, the corporation shall enter into one or more contracts, leases, or other forms of agreement that will, in the judgment of the corporation, provide sufficient consideration to

(2) create and maintain any reserves for the bond payments that the corporation considers necessary or desirable; and

(3) pay all costs necessary to issue, service, or additionally secure the bonds, including trustee's fees and bond insurance premiums, unless these costs are to be paid from bond proceeds or by a party other than the corporation.

Sec. 42.50.640. Security for bonds. In the discretion of the board, an issue of bonds may be secured by a trust indenture, which may be a trust company, bank or national banking association, with corporate trust powers, located inside or outside the state, or by a secured loan agreement or other instrument or under resolution giving powers to a corporate trustee by means of which the corporation may

(1) make and enter into any and all the covenants and agreements with the trustees or the holders of the bonds that the corporation may determine to be necessary or desirable, including covenants, provisions, limitations, and agreements as to

(A) the application, investment, deposit, use, and disposition of the proceeds of bonds of the corporation or of money or other property of the corporation or in which it has an interest;

(B) the fixing and collection of rentals, charges, fees, or other consideration for, and the other terms to be incorporated in, contracts with respect to the use of any of the corporation's property;

5 Sec. 42.50.670. Validity of pledge. (a) The pledge of assets or revenue of the 6 corporation to the payment of the principal of or interest on bonds of the corporation is 7 valid and binding from the time the pledge is made, and the assets or revenue are

 10 against the corporation, irrespective of whether those parties have notice of the lien of 11 the pledge.

12 (b) Nothing in this section prohibits the corporation from selling assets subject 13 to a pledge, except that a sale may be restricted by the trust agreement or resolution 14 providing for the issuance of the bonds.

15 Sec. 42.50.675. Pledge of the state. The state pledges to and agrees with the 16 holders of bonds issued under this chapter and with the federal agency that loans or

 18 and powers vested in the corporation by this chapter to fulfill the terms of a contract 19 made by the corporation with the holders or federal agency, or in any way impair the 20 rights and remedies of the holders until the bonds together with the interest on them 21 with interest on unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in 22 connection with an action or proceeding by or on behalf of the holders, are fully met 23 and discharged. The corporation is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of 24 the state, insofar as it refers to holders of bonds of the corporation, in a contract with 25 the holders and insofar as it relates to a federal agency, in a contract with the federal 26 agency.

27 Sec. 42.50.680. Remedies. A holder of bonds issued under this chapter or of

7 constitute a

8 (1) debt, liability, or obligation of the state or of a political subdivision 9 of the state; or

10 (2) pledge of the faith and credit of the state or of a political 11 subdivision of the state.

12 (b) The corporation may not pledge the credit or the taxing power of the state 13 or its political subdivisions. Each bond issued under this chapter shall contain on its 14 face a statement that

15 (1) the corporation is not obligated to pay it or the interest on it except 16 from the revenue or assets pledged for it; and 27 with matters directly affecting the corporation.

28 (b) A board member or employee who violates this section is personally 29 subject to a civil penalty assessed by a judge of the superior court in an amount not to 30 exceed $5,000. Any person may bring an action to enforce this section.

31 Sec. 42.50.710. Corporation employees. (a) Employees of the corporation are

1 employees of the corporation and not of the state. However, employees of the 2 corporation shall be treated as employees of the state for the purposes of AS 23.40 and 3 AS 39.

4 (b) Except as provided in this subsection, employees of the corporation are 5 covered by AS 23.10.050 - 23.10.150 (Alaska Wage and Hour Act). However, the 6 terms of a collective bargaining agreement mutually agreed upon by an organization 7 representing corporation employees and the corporation may provide that 8 AS 23.10.050 - 23.10.150 do not apply to corporation employees to the extent set out 9 in the collective bargaining agreement.

10 Article 9. Miscellaneous Provisions.

11 Sec. 42.50.800. Claims. (a) If a person has a claim or lawsuit involving 12 activities of the corporation, including actions based on contract, quasi-contract, or 13 tort, the person shall bring the claim or lawsuit against the corporation and may not 14 bring the claim or lawsuit against the state.

15 (b) For the purposes of actionable claims, undertakings, payments of 16 judgments, execution, interest, punitive damages, statutes of limitations, costs, and 17 similar matters related to the presentation and prosecution of claims by and against the 18 corporation, the corporation and its board members and employees have the same

 21 regarding claims against the state.

22 (d) The corporation is not subject to the provisions of AS 44.80.010(1)
 23 regarding the state being a party to an action.

 29 charges, funds, revenue, income, and other money pledged or available to pay or 30 secure the payment of the notes or interest on them, are exempt from taxation by the 31 state or a political subdivision of the state.

(c) This section does not affect or limit an exemption from license fees, property taxes, or excise, income, or other taxes, provided under any other law, nor does it create a tax exemption with respect to the interest of a person other than the corporation.

Sec. 42.50.815. Application of existing laws. Unless specifically provided otherwise in this chapter, the following laws do not apply to the operations of the corporation:
