ROBERT B. HUNT
Clerk

Presented by Representative MALON of Biddeford.
Cosponsored by Senator BEEBE-CENTER of Knox and Representatives: ANKELES of Brunswick, LAJOIE of Lewiston, MOONEN of Portland,
RIELLY of Westbrook, SALISBURY of Westbrook, ZAGER of Portland.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

Sec. 1. 25 MRSA §2919 is enacted to read:

§2919. Domestic terrorism reports

The Department of Public Safety shall report annually to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over criminal justice and public safety matters on domestic terrorism acts and domestic terrorism threats in the State, including the activities and growth of known and suspected violent extremist groups. The annual report must include, but is not limited to, information about threats against individuals belonging to a protected class under the Maine Human Rights Act, local and state governmental bodies, public officials and critical infrastructure.

For purposes of this section, "domestic terrorism" means an activity that involves acts dangerous to human life that are a violation of the crime of causing a catastrophe under Title 17-A, section 803-A; that appears to be intended to intimidate or coerce a civilian population, influence the policy of a government by intimidation or coercion or affect the conduct of a government by mass destruction, assassination or kidnapping; and that occurs primarily within the State.

Sec. 2. Maine Criminal Justice Academy domestic terrorism threat response training and information dissemination. The Maine Criminal Justice Academy shall develop minimum standards regarding domestic terrorism threat response training and information dissemination. For purposes of this section, "domestic terrorism" has the same meaning as in the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 25, section 2919.

SUMMARY

This bill requires the Department of Public Safety to report annually to the joint standing committee of the Legislature having jurisdiction over criminal justice and public safety matters on domestic terrorism acts and domestic terrorism threats in the State, including the activities and growth of known and suspected violent extremist groups. The bill also directs the Maine Criminal Justice Academy to develop minimum standards regarding domestic terrorism threat response training and information dissemination.
