1ST SESSION

S. CON. RES. 15

Expressing support for the designation of October 28, 2017, as “Honoring the Nation’s First Responders Day”.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MAY 18, 2017

Ms. WARREN (for herself and Mr. COTTON) submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing support for the designation of October 28, 2017, as “Honoring the Nation’s First Responders Day”.

Whereas first responders include professional and volunteer fire, police, emergency medical technician, and paramedic workers in the United States;

Whereas there are more than 25,300,000 first responders in the United States working to keep communities safe;

Whereas first responders deserve to be recognized for their commitment to safety, defense, and honor; and

Whereas October 28, 2017, would be an appropriate day to establish as “Honoring the Nation’s First Responders Day”: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives
2 concurring), That the Senate—

3 (1) supports the designation of October 28,
4 2017, as “Honoring the Nation’s First Responders
5 Day”;

6 (2) honors and recognizes the contributions of 7 first responders; and

8 (3) encourages the people of the United States
9 to observe Honoring the Nation’s First Responders
10 Day with appropriate ceremonies and activities that
11 promote awareness of the contributions of first re-
12 sponders in the United States.
