Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 53B-18-1901 is enacted to read:

Part 19. Center for Healthy and Meaningful Play

53B-18-1901 . Center for Healthy and Meaningful Play -- Definitions -- Purpose
-- Duties and responsibilities.

(1) As used in this section, "center" means the Center for Healthy and Meaningful Play that this section creates.

(2) This section creates the Center for Healthy and Meaningful Play to be administered by the Emma Eccles Jones College of Education and Human Services at Utah State University.

(3) The center's purpose is to act as an interdisciplinary research and outreach program that shall focus on the science, practice, and promotion of childhood play that contribute to physical, psychological, social, family, and community well-being.

(4) To fulfill the center's purpose under Subsection (3), the center has the following duties and responsibilities:

(a) to direct the center's efforts to understand childhood development and the impact of play on children and families, including:

(i) access to play opportunities;

(ii) play-based learning;

(iii) therapeutic play; and

(iv) youth sport;

(b) to collaborate with institutions of higher education, the State Board of Education, school districts, local governments, community and other public and private stakeholders, and state, national, and international experts on projects and idea development that promote childhood play;

(c) to develop and offer outreach programs, academic programs, and educational training and support for school districts, local governments, and communities on access to play opportunities, learning, therapy, and youth sport that are responsive to a child's developmental needs and interests;

(d) to gather and maintain data on childhood play, including data that measures the desired outcomes as determined by the center;

(e) to identify challenges and opportunities in developing, implementing, and providing healthy and meaningful play for all youth and the impact of play on children and families; and

(f) to identify and acquire public and private resources at the state and national levels that are available to support the center's purpose.
