HOUSE BILL 686

By Freeman

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 24; Title 36 and Title 39, relative to a victim advocate's communications.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 24, Chapter 1, Part 2, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

- (a) As used in this section:
- (1) "Advocate" means an employee or volunteer of a domestic violence shelter, crisis line, or victim services provider that provides services for victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, or human trafficking and who has completed a minimum of twenty (20) hours of relevant training, including, but not limited to, training on the application of this section from a victim services provider;
- (2) "Victim" means a person seeking assistance because the person is a domestic abuse victim as defined by § 36-3-601; victim of an offense under title 39, chapter 13, part 5; trafficked person as defined by § 39-13-314; or a victim of stalking as defined by § 39-17-315, regardless of where or how the person seeks or receives services; and
- (3) "Victim services provider" is an entity or organization providing direct services to victims, but does not include a law enforcement agency, the department of children's services, the department of human services, the division of adult protective services, or the office of a district attorney general.

- (b) An advocate shall not disclose any of the following in a judicial, legislative, or administrative proceeding, except as provided in this section or when a report of abuse is otherwise required by law:
 - (1) A communication, including verbal, written, or otherwise stored information, received by the advocate from a victim;
 - (2) Records regarding a victim stored by the advocate in the course of business:
 - (3) Counseling that a victim received;
 - (4) Crisis intervention services that a victim received; or
 - (5) The location of the shelter that accommodated a victim.
- (c) This section does not limit the ability of a court to compel disclosure if, upon the motion of a party, the court determines after an in-camera review that:
 - (1) The information sought is relevant and material evidence of the facts and circumstances involved in an alleged criminal act that is the subject of a criminal proceeding;
 - (2) The probative value of the information outweighs the harmful effect of disclosure, if any, on the victim, the victim-advocate relationship, and the treatment services; and
 - (3) The information cannot be obtained by reasonable means from any other source.
- (d) The victim may waive the privilege of the communication in subsection (b) only by express written consent. A victim's consent is not implied when the victim is a party to any judicial, legislative, or administrative proceeding. The privilege terminates upon the death of the victim.

- (e) If the victim files a lawsuit against an advocate or a victim services provider, this section does not limit the ability of the advocate or victim services provider to raise a defense when the confidential communications are relevant to a claim or defense.
- (f) This section does not apply to advocates with child advocacy centers and child protective investigator teams.
- (g) This section does not limit access to records by the department of children's services when the department is investigating an allegation of child abuse or neglect.
- (h) This section does not limit or expand the ability of law enforcement to make arrangements with a shelter in order to serve any legal papers or process regarding a person staying at a shelter, pursuant to § 71-6-208.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect July 1, 2023, the public welfare requiring it.
