

115TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 200

To prohibit the conduct of a first-use nuclear strike absent a declaration of war by Congress.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JANUARY 24, 2017

Mr. MARKEY introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

A BILL

To prohibit the conduct of a first-use nuclear strike absent a declaration of war by Congress.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Restricting First Use
5 of Nuclear Weapons Act of 2017”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND DECLARATION OF POLICY.

7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

8 (1) The Constitution gives Congress the sole
9 power to declare war.

1 (2) The framers of the Constitution understood 2 that the monumental decision to go to war, which 3 can result in massive death and the destruction of 4 civilized society, must be made by the representa-
5 tives of the people and not by a single person.

6 (3) As stated by section 2(c) of the War Powers
7 Resolution (Public Law 93–148; 50 U.S.C. 1541),
8 “the constitutional powers of the President as Com-9 mander-in-Chief to introduce United States Armed 10 Forces into hostilities, or into situations where im-
11 minent involvement in hostilities is clearly indicated 12 by the circumstances, are exercised only pursuant to 13 (1) a declaration of war, (2) specific statutory au-14 thorization, or (3) a national emergency created by 15 attack upon the United States, its territories or pos-
16 sessions, or its armed forces”.

17 (4) Nuclear weapons are uniquely powerful
18 weapons that have the capability to instantly kill 19 millions of people, create long-term health and envi-
20 ronmental consequences throughout the world, di-21 rectly undermine global peace, and put the United 22 States at existential risk from retaliatory nuclear 23 strikes.

1 (5) By any definition of war, a first-use nuclear 2 strike from the United States would constitute a 3 major act of war.

4 (6) A first-use nuclear strike conducted absent
5 a declaration of war by Congress would violate the 6 Constitution.

7 (b) DECLARATION OF POLICY.—It is the policy of the 8 United States that no first-use nuclear strike should be 9 conducted absent a declaration of war by Congress.

10 SEC. 3. PROHIBITION ON CONDUCT OF FIRST-USE NU-
11 CLEAR STRIKES.

12 (a) PROHIBITION.—Notwithstanding any other provi-
13 sion of law, the President may not use the Armed Forces
14 of the United States to conduct a first-use nuclear strike
15 unless such strike is conducted pursuant to a declaration
16 of war by Congress that expressly authorizes such strike.

17 (b) FIRST-USE NUCLEAR STRIKE DEFINED.—In this 18 section, the term “first-use nuclear strike” means an at-19 tack using nuclear weapons against an enemy that is con-
20 ducted without the President determining that the enemy 21 has first launched a nuclear strike against the United 22 States or an ally of the United States.
