A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT AMENDING BIRTH REGISTRATION LAWS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 4 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 130A-101.1. Self-identification of race.

(a) A parent may self-identify the race of the child. The following guidelines shall control self-identification under this section:

(1) If both parents' names are entered on the child's birth certificate pursuant to G.S. 130A-101, self-identification of race requires the agreement of both parents.

(2) If only one parent's name is entered on the child's birth certificate pursuant to G.S. 130A-101, the parent named on the birth certificate may self-identify the child's race.

(3) Notwithstanding any prior self-identification, the child's race shall be entered on the certificate as directed by the adoptive parent of the child, if there is not more than one adoptive parent. If there is more than one adoptive parent of the child, then the race of the child shall be entered only as agreed upon by both adoptive parents.

(4) Notwithstanding any other self-identification, the child's race shall be entered on the certificate as directed by that child, provided the child has reached the age of majority.

(b) This section only applies to the birth certificates of children born on or after October 1, 2022. This section does not prohibit the State Registrar or a local registrar from entering on a birth certificate any information required by G.S. 130A-102."
