BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MONTANA:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. Conversion of condominium to townhouse. (1) A condominium may be converted to a townhome or townhouse only if:

(a) no other structure occupies the vertical airspace above the unit's converted footprint; and

(b) all condominium units on the property are converted to townhome or townhouse units.

(2) A condominium described in subsection (1) may be converted to a townhome or townhouse only if all the unit owners owning units on the property consent in writing to the conversion.

(3) The association of unit owners must obtain an appraisal of the fair market value of each unit presuming that each unit had been converted to a townhome or townhouse for the purpose of establishing that the fair market value of the units as townhomes or townhouses is not less than the fair market value of the existing condominium units.

(4) (a) Within 10 days following the date of written consent pursuant to subsection (2) and after obtaining the appraisal required by subsection (3), a representative of the unit owners who consented to the conversion shall deliver by certified mail, return receipt requested, to each lender holding a mortgage against a unit subject to the conversion or to the applicable loan servicing company and to each holder of a lien against a unit subject to the conversion, a written notification of the proposed conversion with an opportunity to respond.

(b) Within 90 days of the date of the mailing of the written notification, the lender, loan servicing

1 company, or lienholder may object to the conversion by sending a written objection and explanation of the
2 lender's, loan servicing company's, or lienholder's requirements for acceptance of the conversion. The objection
3 and explanation must be sent by certified mail to the representative who prepared the notification.

4 (c) If a lender, loan servicing company, or lienholder does not register an objection within 90 days after
5 the date of the mailing of the written notification as provided by subsection (4)(b), the lender, loan servicing
6 company, or lienholder is considered to have consented to the conversion, and the unit owners' representative
7 may record the amended declaration.

8 (d) If the representative receives a written objection and explanation from a lender, loan serving
9 company, or lienholder, the conversion must be deferred for an additional 60 days beyond the 90 days described
10 by subsection (4)(b) to provide the parties an opportunity to resolve the objection. After the expiration of the 11 additional 60-day period, the amended declaration may be recorded.

12 (e) A conversion may be terminated if a consenting unit owner withdraws the owner's consent in writing
13 to the association of unit owners prior to expiration of the 90 days described by subsection (4)(b).

14 (5) (a) Except as otherwise provided by this section, after written consent for a conversion is granted as 15 provided by subsection (2), an amended declaration executed in accordance with 70-23-305 must be recorded
16 with the office of the county clerk and recorder of the county in which the property is situated. The amended
17 declaration must contain the following provisions or have the following contemporaneous recordings attached
18 to it:

19 (i) the bylaws of the association of unit owners with any amendments recorded pursuant to 70-23-307;

20 (ii) a provision providing for the continuation of the prior condominium association of unit owners as a
21 townhouse association of unit owners;

22 (iii) an exhibit containing certification by all the unit owners as provided in subsection (2) certifying that 23 they have consented in writing to the conversion;

24 (iv) a site plan that includes the boundaries of the footprint beneath each unit and any limited common
25 elements such as decks, patios, and walkways that will be included in the conversion; and

26 (v) a survey depicting the corners and boundaries of the land underlying each townhome or townhouse.

27 (b) An amended declaration must be accepted for recording by the clerk and recorder if the amended
28 declaration contains the information required by 70-23-301 and this section.

29 (6) The conversion of a condominium to a townhome or townhouse is effective upon recording the 30 amended declaration and contemporaneous recordings pursuant to subsection (5).

1
2        NEW SECTION. Section 2. Effect of conversion. Following a conversion pursuant to [section 1]:

3        (1) (a) a townhome or townhouse unit, including the structural elements and land beneath the unit as
4 described in the survey in [section 1(5)(a)(v)], must be considered to be owned in fee simple by the unit owner;

5        (b) a portion of the property depicted as common area on the site plan described in [section 1(5)(a)(iv)]
6 must be considered to be owned in common by all of the converted townhome or townhouse unit owners. The 7 percentage of the undivided interest of each unit owner in the common area must be considered to be the same
8 as the percentage of undivided interest owned by the owner in the common elements prior to the conversion.

9        (c) a lien affecting a townhome or townhouse unit is a lien against the fee simple interest of the unit
10 owner in subsection (1)(a) and the undivided interest in the common area described in subsection (1)(b). The 11 conversion, by itself, may not be considered to have an effect on the existing priorities of any liens concerning 12 the converted townhome or townhouse units.

13        (2) the owners, lenders, and title insurers may rely on the amended declaration's legal description of the 14 property subject to the adjustment of boundaries provided by the survey in [section 1 (5)(a)(v)] with regard to the 15 future conveyance of individual townhome or townhouse units;

16        (3) section 71-1-108 applies to the fee simple title to the land beneath a townhome or townhouse unit
17 acquired by the mortgagor pursuant to the conversion;

18        (4) because the amended declaration must provide for the continuation of the association of unit owners
19 pursuant to [section 1(5)(a)(ii)], the unit owners may not be required to form a new association of unit owners;

20        (5) the townhome or townhouse may not be considered removed from the provisions of Title 70, chapter
21 23, solely by virtue of the conversion; and

22        (6) a unit owner, lender, or lienholder may not bring an action concerning the conversion against any 23 party associated with the conversion, including but not limited to the association of unit owners, title insurers,
24 escrow providers, or lenders. A person who brings an action concerning the conversion is liable for damages
25 and attorney fees and costs to defend the action.
