22 and such other officers as it deems necessary.

23 ~~F.~~ G. Four members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction
24 of business, but no action shall be taken without at least four votes in accord.

The original instrument and the following digest, which constitutes no part of the legislative instrument, were prepared by Xavier I. Alexander.

Present law creates the State Board of Examiners of Interior Designers within the office of the governor consisting of seven members appointed by the governor and confirmed by the Senate.

Present law provides that the seven members of the board will serve four-year terms, or until their successors are appointed to take office.

Proposed law maintains a seven member board.

Present law provides that the seven member board shall consist of the following:

- (1) Three members of the board shall be selected from a list of nine names from its membership submitted by the American Society of Interior Designers.
- (2) Two members shall be selected from the list of licensed or registered interior designers whose licenses are in good standing at the time of appointment.
- (3) One member shall be selected from a list of three names from its membership submitted by the International Interior Design Association.
- (4) One member shall be an interior design educator selected from a list of three names submitted by the Interior Design Educators Counsel, Inc.

Proposed law deletes present law as it relates to the selection of members and provides that the seven member board shall consist of six registered interior designers and one member selected from the public appointed by the governor from a list of names of qualified candidates submitted by the board.

Proposed law requires that the six registered interior designers appointed to the board shall be in good standing with the board, reside in the state, possess a NCIDQ certification, and have provided interior design services as a registered interior designer for at least five years prior to being appointed to the board.

Proposed law requires that the one member from the public appointed to the board shall represent the health, safety and welfare of consumers in the state and be a resident in the state and shall not be an immediate family member of any registered interior designer.

Proposed law provides that the terms for all members of the board shall be for a period of four years or until members' successors have been appointed and have taken office.

Proposed law provides the procedure to fill board member vacancies.

Effective August 1, 2024.
