78A-6-112.5, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 78A-6-112.5 is enacted to read:

78A-6-112.5. Rights of a minor in custody for an offense -- Waiver of rights --

Interview of a minor in a detention facility -- Presumption.

(1) If a minor is taken into custody under this chapter for an offense, the minor has a right to:

(a) remain silent;

(b) be advised that any statement or admission by the minor can be used against the minor in a court proceeding;

(c) be represented by an attorney during any questioning of the minor;

(d) be appointed an attorney in accordance with Title 78B, Chapter 22, Part 2, Appointment of Counsel; and

(e) if the minor is a child, have the minor's parent or guardian present during any questioning of the minor.

(2) (a) If a minor who is 18 years old or older is taken into custody for an offense, the minor may not be questioned unless:

(i) the minor is advised of the minor's rights under Subsection (1);

(ii) the minor waives the minor's rights in accordance with Subsection (3); and

(iii) if the minor does not waive the minor's right under Subsections (1)(c) and (d), the minor's appointed or retained attorney is present for the questioning of the minor.

(b) If a child is taken into custody for an offense, the child may not be questioned unless:

(i) the child is advised of the child's rights under Subsection (1);

(ii) the child waives the child's rights in accordance with Subsection (4);

(iii) if the child does not waive the child's rights under Subsections (1)(c) and (d), the child's appointed or retained attorney is present for the questioning of the child; and

(iv) if the child does not waive the child's right to have the child's parent or guardian present during questioning under Subsection (1)(e), the child's parent or guardian is present for the questioning of the child.

(3) A minor who is 18 years old or older may only waive the minor's rights under Subsection (1) if the minor knowingly and voluntarily waives the minor's rights.

(4) A child may only waive a child's rights under Subsection (1) if:

59 (a) the child knowingly and voluntarily waives the child's rights; and 60 (b) (i) (A) the child is given an opportunity to consult with the child's parent or 61 guardian;
62 (B) the child's parent or guardian knowingly and voluntarily consents to the child's 63 waiver; and
64 (C) the child's parent or guardian has no interest adverse to the child, including that the 65 parent or guardian is not a victim or a codefendant of any offense alleged to have been
66 committed by the child;
67 (ii) if the child is appointed or retains an attorney, the child is given an opportunity to
68 consult with the child's attorney;
69 (iii) if a guardian ad litem has been appointed to the child:
70 (A) the child is given an opportunity to consult with the child's guardian ad litem; and
71 (B) the guardian ad litem consents to any questioning of the child;
72 (iv) the child is emancipated as described in Section 78A-6-805;
73 (v) the child has misrepresented the child's age as being 18 years old or older and a
74 peace officer has relied on that misrepresentation in good faith; or
75 (vi) a peace officer or a law enforcement agency is unable to contact the child's parent
76 or guardian within two hours after the time in which the child is taken into custody.
77 (5) A waiver under Subsection (4) shall be in writing and signed by the child and the 78 child's parent or guardian if the child's parent or guardian consents to the waiver.
79 (6) If a minor is admitted to a detention facility under Section 78A-6-112:
80 (a) the minor has a right to confer in private with the minor's counsel, the minor's
81 parent or guardian, or a member of the clergy; and 82 (b) the minor may not be interviewed about an offense alleged to have been committed 83 by the minor, unless:
84 (i) the minor has waived the minor's rights under Subsection (1) in accordance with 85 this section;
86 (ii) if the minor has been appointed a guardian ad litem, the minor's guardian ad litem
87 has consented to an interview of the minor as described in Section 62A-4a-415; and 88 (iii) if the minor has appointed or retained an attorney, the minor's attorney has 89 consented to an interview of the minor.

(7) (a) If a child waives the child's rights under Subsection (1) in accordance with Subsection (4)(b)(iv), (v), or (vi), the child is presumed to:

(i) not be adequately mature and experienced to knowingly and voluntarily waive the child's rights under Subsection (1); and

(ii) be unable to understand the child's rights under Subsection (1).

(b) The presumption under Subsection (7)(a) may only be overcome by a preponderance of the evidence showing that the child had the ability to comprehend and waive the child's rights under Subsection (1).

(8) A minor may only waive a minor's right to be represented by counsel at all stages of court proceedings in accordance with Section 78B-22-204.

Section 2. Section 78B-22-204 is amended to read:

78B-22-204. Waiver by a minor.

A minor may not waive the right to ~~[counsel before]~~ be represented by counsel at all stages of court proceedings unless:

(1) the minor has consulted with counsel; and

(2) the court is satisfied that in light of the minor's unique circumstances and attributes:

(a) the minor's waiver is knowing and voluntary; and

(b) the minor understands the consequences of the waiver.
