3 may review and adjust a parent's child support obligation or child care obligation as

- 14 (13) If a person knowingly or by reason of negligence discloses a financial record of an 15 individual, that individual may pursue civil action for damages in a federal District 16 Court or appropriate state court. No liability shall arise with respect to any 17 disclosure which results from a good faith, but erroneous, interpretation. In any 18 civil action brought for reason of negligence of disclosure of financial records, upon 19 finding of liability on the part of the defendant, the defendant shall be liable to the 20 plaintiff in an amount equal to:
- 21 (a) The sum of the greater of one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each act of 22 unauthorized disclosure of financial records; or
- 23 (b) The sum of the actual damages sustained by the plaintiff resulting from the 24 unauthorized disclosure; plus
- 25 (c) If willful disclosure or disclosure was a result of gross negligence, punitive 26 damages, plus the costs, including attorney fees, of the action.
- 27 (14) The Office of the Attorney General~~[cabinet]~~ shall issue an administrative order or

1 seek a judicial order requiring a parent with a delinquent child support obligation,

7 (6) The Office of the Attorney General~~[Cabinet for Health and Family Services]~~ shall 19 report, and the failure is a result of a conspiracy between the employee and the 20 employer to prevent the proper information from being filed within twenty (20) 21 days from the date that the second written notice is sent, the Office of the Attorney 22 General~~[Cabinet for Health and Family Services]~~ shall send the employer by 23 certified mail, return receipt request, notice of an administrative fine. The fine shall 24 be two hundred fifty dollars ($250) per calendar month per person for any violation

(10) The employer shall have ten (10) days after receipt of the administrative fine notice to request a hearing before the Office of the Attorney General~~[Cabinet for Health and Family Services]~~ on whether the administrative fine was properly assessed. (5) If the Office of the Attorney General~~[cabinet]~~ elects to conduct the modification review as specified in KRS 405.430 (6), either party may contest the adjustment to the obligation amount within thirty (30) days after the date of the notice of the adjustment by requesting a review under subsection (1) of this section and, if appropriate, a request for adjustment of the order as permitted by this chapter.

1 ➔Section 52. KRS 405.460 is amended to read as follows:

16 system shall be timely and shall not create an unavoidable delay in the payment of a 17 lottery prize.

18 ➔Section 54. KRS 405.465 is amended to read as follows:

19 (1) This section shall apply only to those child support, medical support, maintenance,

21 the Office of the Attorney General~~[Cabinet for Health and Family Services]~~ or 22 those court orders obtained in administering Part D, Title IV of the Federal Social 23 Security Act.

24 (2) All child support orders and medical support insurance orders being established, 25 modified, or enforced by the Office of the Attorney General~~[Cabinet for Health and~~ 26 ~~Family Services]~~, or those orders obtained pursuant to the administration of Part D, 27 Title IV of the Federal Social Security Act, shall provide for income withholding

1 which shall begin immediately.

2 (3) The court shall order either or both parents who are obligated to pay child support, 3 medical support, or maintenance under this section to assign to the Office of the 4 Attorney General~~[Cabinet for Health and Family Services]~~ that portion of salary or 5 wages of the parent due and to be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the 6 child support amount ordered by the court.

7 (4) The order shall be binding upon the employer or any subsequent employer upon the 8 service by certified mail of a copy of the order upon the employer and until further 9 order of the court. The employer may deduct the sum of one dollar ($1) for each 10 payment made pursuant to the order.

11 (5) The employer shall notify the Office of the Attorney General~~[cabinet]~~ when an 12 employee, for whom a wage withholding is in effect, terminates employment and 13 provide the terminated employee's last known address and the name and address of 14 the terminated employee's new employer, if known.

15 (6) (a) An employer with twenty (20) or more employees shall notify in writing the 16 Office of the Attorney General~~[cabinet]~~, or its designee administering the 17 support order, of any lump-sum payment of any kind of one hundred fifty

19 order. An employer with twenty (20) or more employees shall notify in 20 writing the Office of the Attorney General~~[cabinet]~~ or its designee no later 21 than forty-five (45) days before the lump-sum payment is to be made or, if the 22 employee's right to the lump-sum payment is determined less than forty-five 23 (45) days before it is to be made, the date on which that determination is 24 made. After notification, the employer shall hold each lump-sum payment of 25 one hundred fifty dollars ($150) or more for thirty (30) days after the date on 26 which it would otherwise be paid to the employee and, on order of the court, 27 pay all or a specified amount of the lump-sum payment to the Department for

1 Income Support, Child Support Enforcement. The employer may deduct the 2 sum of one dollar ($1) for each payment.

5 (7) Any assignment made pursuant to court order shall have priority as against any 6 attachment, execution, or other assignment, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

7 (8) No assignment under this section by an employee shall constitute grounds for 8 dismissal of the obligor, refusal to employ, or taking disciplinary action against any 9 obligor subject to withholding required by this section.

10 ➔Section 55. KRS 405.467 is amended to read as follows:

11 (1) All support orders issued by the Office of the Attorney General~~[Cabinet for Health~~ 12 ~~and Family Services]~~, including those issued pursuant to Part D, Title IV of the 13 Federal Social Security Act, shall provide for immediate withholding of earnings of 14 the parent or parents obligated to pay child support and medical support as is 15 necessary to pay the child support obligation, except where one (1) of the parties 16 demonstrates, and the court or administrative order finds that there is good cause 17 not to require immediate income withholding, or a written agreement is reached by 18 both parties which provides for an alternative arrangement.

19 (2) In any case in which a support order was issued in the state and in which a parent is 20 required to pay court-ordered or administratively determined child support, medical 21 support, maintenance, and medical support insurance, and wage withholding is not 22 in effect, and an arrearage accrues that is equal to the amount of support payment 23 for one (1) month, upon request of the absent parent, request of the custodial parent, 24 or upon administrative determination, the Attorney General~~[secretary]~~ shall issue 25 an order for withholding of earnings of the parent as is necessary to comply with 26 the order plus interest at the legal rate on the arrearage, if any, without the need for 27 a judicial or administrative hearing.

- 1 (3) If a court-ordered arrearage repayment amount does not exist and an arrearage 2 accrues that is equal to the amount of support payable for one (1) month, an 3 arrearage repayment amount may be determined administratively. The Office of the 4 Attorney General~~[cabinet]~~ shall promulgate administrative regulations establishing 5 the guidelines for arrearage payments.
- 6 (4) In any case in which a parent is required either by court order or administrative 7 order to provide medical insurance coverage for the child and the parent has failed 8 to make application to obtain coverage for the child, the Attorney 9 General~~[secretary]~~ shall issue an order for withholding of the employee's share, if 10 any, of premiums for health coverage and to pay the share of premiums to the 11 insurer, without the need for a judicial or administrative hearing.
- 12 (5) The Office of the Attorney General~~[cabinet]~~ shall advise the obligated parent that a 13 wage withholding has commenced by sending a copy of the order to withhold at the 14 same time that the order is sent to the employer. The only basis for contesting the 15 withholding shall be a mistake of fact or law. If the parent contests the withholding, 16 the Office of the Attorney General~~[cabinet]~~ shall give the obligor an opportunity to 17 present his or her case at an administrative hearing conducted in accordance with 18 KRS Chapter 13B and decide if the withholding will continue.
- 19 (6) The Office of the Attorney General~~[cabinet]~~ shall combine any administrative or 20 judicial wage withholding order, or multiple administrative or judicial orders for 21 child support and medical support into a single wage withholding order when 22 payable through the office~~[cabinet]~~ to a single family or to multiple family units.
- 23 (7) The Office of the Attorney General~~[cabinet]~~ shall serve the order to withhold 24 earnings or notice of multiple wage withholding orders specifying wage 25 withholding requirements on the employer of an obligor by certified mail, return 26 receipt requested. The order shall state the amount to be withheld, or the 27 requirement to enroll the child under the health insurance coverage, including

1 amounts to be applied to arrearages, plus interest at the legal rate on the arrearage, 2 if any, and the date the withholding is to begin. The total amount to be withheld, 3 including current support and payment on arrearages plus interest, and medical 4 insurance coverage may not exceed the limit permitted under the federal Consumer 5 Credit Protection Act at 15 U.S.C. sec. 1673(b).

6 (8) If there is more than one (1) notice for child support withholding against a single 7 absent parent, the Office of the Attorney General~~[cabinet]~~ shall allocate amounts 8 available for withholding, giving priority to current child support, up to the limits 9 imposed under Section 303(b) of the Consumer Credit Protection Act at 15 U.S.C.
10 sec. 1673(b). The allocation by the office~~[cabinet]~~ shall not result in a withholding 11 for one (1) of the support obligations not being implemented. Amounts resulting 12 from wage withholding shall be allocated on a proportionate basis between multiple 13 family units. Any custodial parent adversely affected by the provisions of this 14 subsection shall have standing to challenge any proportionate allocations and, for 15 good cause shown, a District Court, Circuit Court, or family court of competent 16 jurisdiction may set aside the Office of the Attorney General's~~[cabinet's]~~ 17 proportional allocations as to the custodial parent.

18 (9) If the amounts to be withheld preclude collection of the total amount of combined 19 child support and medical support due to the limits of the federal Consumer Credit 20 Protection Act at 15 U.S.C. sec. 1673(b), the actual amount received shall be 21 applied first to the current monthly child support obligation amount. Any payment 22 exceeding the current monthly child support obligation shall then be applied by the 23 Office of the Attorney General~~[cabinet]~~ to the administratively ordered or 24 judicially ordered medical support obligation.

25 (10) The employer shall forward to the Office of the Attorney General~~[Cabinet for~~ 26 ~~Health and Family Services]~~ that portion of salary or wages of the parent due and to 27 be due in the future as will be sufficient to pay the child support amount ordered.

- 1 (11) The employer shall be held liable to the Office of the Attorney General~~[cabinet]~~ for 2 any amount which the employer fails to withhold from earnings due an obligor 3 following receipt of an order to withhold earnings.
- 4 (12) Any order to withhold earnings under this section shall have priority as against any 5 attachment, execution, or other assignment, notwithstanding any state statute or 6 administrative regulation to the contrary.

27 (b) The commissioner of workplace standards, in conjunction with the agencies

1 designated in this subsection, is authorized to adopt appropriate regulations 2 governing the issuance and setting the standards of determinations of ability 3 or disability;

4 (c) The agencies designated in this subsection, and any other state agency which 5 serves individuals with disabilities and which the commissioner of workplace 6 standards deems proper, shall cooperate to the fullest with the Department of 7 Workplace Standards in issuing a statement of disability and limitations as 8 specified in subsection (3) of this section within twenty (20) days of the date 9 the individual with a disability presents himself before such agency for 10 examination.

11 (5) (a) For the purposes of KRS 207.130 to 207.240, the commissioner of workplace 12 standards, or his authorized representative, shall have the power to enter the 13 place of employment of any employer, labor organization, or employment 14 agency to inspect and copy employment records, to compare character of 15 work and operations on which persons employed by him are engaged, to 16 question such persons, and to obtain such other information as is reasonably 17 necessary to make a preliminary determination that the aggrieved individual 18 is, or is not, fully capable of carrying out the duties of the job which he or she 19 had been denied;

20 (b) In the event that a preliminary determination is made that the aggrieved 21 individual is not fully capable of carrying out the duties of the job which he or 22 she had been denied, the aggrieved individual and the employer shall both be 23 so advised;

24 (c) The aggrieved individual, within ten (10) days of receiving such notification, 25 may file with the Department of Workplace Standards an application for 26 reconsideration of the determination. Upon such application, the 27 commissioner of workplace standards or his representative shall make a new

1 determination within ten (10) days whether the aggrieved individual is, or is 2 not, fully capable of carrying out the duties of the job which he or she had 3 been denied. If the determination is again made that the aggrieved individual 4 is not fully capable of carrying out these duties, the aggrieved individual and 5 the employer shall both be so advised;

- 6 (d) In the event that a preliminary determination has been made that the aggrieved 7 individual is fully capable of carrying out the duties of the job which he or she 8 had been denied, the employer, labor organization, or employment agency 9 shall be so advised and encouraged to make an immediate offer to the 10 aggrieved individual of the position which he or she had been denied. In the 11 event the position has already been filled, the employer, labor organization, or 12 employment agency shall be encouraged to make an offer to the aggrieved 13 individual of the next available position for which he or she is qualified.

14 ➔Section 71. KRS 403.212 is amended to read as follows:

- 15 (1) The following provisions and child support table shall be the child support 16 guidelines established for the Commonwealth of Kentucky.
- 17 (2) The Office of the Attorney General~~[Cabinet for Health and Family Services shall]~~:
18 (a) Promulgate an administrative regulation in accordance with KRS Chapter 19 13A establishing a child support obligation worksheet; and 20 (b) Make accessible on its website~~[Web site]~~ a manual providing examples or 21 illustrations of the application of the child support guidelines and the child 22 support obligation worksheet.
- 23 (3) For the purposes of the child support guidelines:
24 (a) "Income" means actual gross income of the parent if employed to full capacity 25 or potential income if unemployed or underemployed; 26 (b) "Gross income" includes income from any source, except as excluded in this 27 subsection, and includes but is not limited to income from salaries, wages,

1 retirement and pension funds, commissions, bonuses, dividends, severance
2 pay, pensions, interest, trust income, annuities, capital gains, Social Security 3 benefits, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, 4 disability insurance benefits, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), gifts, 5 prizes, and alimony or maintenance received. Specifically excluded are 6 benefits received from means-tested public assistance programs, including but 7 not limited to public assistance as defined under Title IV-A of the Federal 8 Social Security Act, and food stamps;

9 (c) For income from self-employment, rent, royalties, proprietorship of a 10 business, or joint ownership of a partnership or closely held corporation, 11 "gross income" means gross receipts minus ordinary and necessary expenses 12 required for self-employment or business operation. Straight-line 13 depreciation, using Internal Revenue Service (IRS) guidelines, shall be the 14 only allowable method of calculating depreciation expense in determining 15 gross income. Specifically excluded from ordinary and necessary expenses for 16 purposes of this guideline shall be investment tax credits or any other business 17 expenses inappropriate for determining gross income for purposes of 18 calculating child support. Income and expenses from self-employment or 19 operation of a business shall be carefully reviewed to determine an 20 appropriate level of gross income available to the parent to satisfy a child 21 support obligation. In most cases, this amount will differ from a determination 22 of business income for tax purposes. Expense reimbursement or in-kind 23 payments received by a parent in the course of employment, self-employment, 24 or operation of a business or personal use of business property or payments of 25 expenses by a business, shall be counted as income if they are significant and 26 reduce personal living expenses such as a company or business car, free 27 housing, reimbursed meals, or club dues;

1 (d) "Self-support reserve" means a low-income adjustment amount to the 2 obligated parent of nine hundred fifteen dollars ($915) per month that 3 considers the subsistence needs of the obligor with a limited ability to pay in 4 accordance with 45 C.F.R. sec. 302.56(c)(1)(ii), and as applied under 5 subsection (5) of this section;

6 (e) 1. If there is a finding that a parent is voluntarily unemployed or 7 underemployed, child support shall be calculated based on a 8 determination of potential income, except that a finding of voluntary 9 unemployment or underemployment and a determination of potential 10 income shall not be made for a parent who is incarcerated, physically or 11 mentally incapacitated, or is caring for a very young child, age three (3) 12 or younger, for whom the parents owe a joint legal responsibility;

13 2. A court may find a parent is voluntarily unemployed or underemployed 14 without finding that the parent intended to avoid or reduce the child 15 support obligation; and 16 3. Imputation of potential income, when applicable, shall include 17 consideration of the following circumstances of the parents, to the extent 18 known:

- 19 a. Assets and residence;
- 20 b. Employment, earning history, and job skills;
- 21 c. Educational level, literacy, age, health, and criminal record that 22 could impair the ability to gain or continue employment;
- 23 d. Record of seeking work;
- 24 e. Local labor market, including availability of employment for 25 which the parent may be qualified and employable;
- 26 f. Prevailing earnings in the local labor market; and
- 27 g. Other relevant background factors, including employment barriers;

- 1 (f) "Obligor" has the same meaning as in Section 8 of this Act ~~[KRS 205.710]~~;
- 2 (g) "Imputed child support obligation" means the amount of child support the 3 parent would be required to pay from application of the child support 4 guidelines;
- 5 (h) Income statements of the parents shall be verified by documentation of both 6 current and past income. Suitable documentation shall include, but shall not 7 be limited to, income tax returns, paystubs, employer statements, or receipts 8 and expenses if self-employed;
- 9 (i) "Combined monthly adjusted parental gross income" means the combined 10 monthly gross incomes of both parents, less any of the following payments 11 made by the parent:
- 12 1. The amount of pre-existing orders for current maintenance for prior 13 spouses to the extent payment is actually made and the amount of 14 current maintenance, if any, ordered paid in the proceeding before the 15 court;
- 16 2. The amount of pre-existing orders of current child support for prior-born 17 children to the extent payment is actually made under those orders; and
- 18 3. A deduction for the support to the extent payment is made, if a parent is 19 legally responsible for and is actually providing support for other prior-20 born children who are not the subject of a particular proceeding. If the 21 prior-born children reside with that parent, an "imputed child support 22 obligation" shall be allowed in the amount which would result from 23 application of the guidelines for the support of the prior-born children; 24 and
- 25 (j) "Split custody arrangement" means a situation where each parent has sole 26 custody and decision-making authority while the child or children is in his or 27 her residence. Visitation only occurs when the child is in residence with the 1 other parent.

2 (4) Any child support obligation shall be calculated by using the number of children for 3 whom the parents share a joint legal responsibility.

4 (5) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection, the child support 5 obligation set forth in the child support guidelines table shall be divided 6 between the parents in proportion to their combined monthly adjusted parental 7 gross income.

8 (b) The child support obligation of an obligated parent whose monthly adjusted 9 gross income is equal to or less than the amounts in subparagraphs 1. to 5. of 10 this paragraph shall be calculated using the monthly adjusted gross income of 11 the obligated parent alone to provide for the self-support reserve. The 12 following monthly adjusted gross income amounts shall qualify an individual 13 for the self-support reserve:

- 14 1. One thousand one hundred dollars ($1,100) with one (1) child; 15 2. One thousand three hundred dollars ($1,300) with two (2) children; 16 3. One thousand four hundred dollars ($1,400) with three (3) children;
17 4. One thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) with four (4) or five (5) 18 children; or 19 5. One thousand six hundred dollars ($1,600) with six (6) or more children.

20 (c) The obligated parent shall pay the lesser support amount calculated in 21 accordance with:

- 22 1. Paragraph (a) of this subsection;
23 2. Paragraph (b) of this subsection; and 24 3. As determined under KRS 403.2121 if the shared parenting time credit 25 is applicable.

26 (6) The minimum amount of child support shall be sixty dollars ($60) per month, 27 except as provided in KRS 403.2121(3).

1 (7) The court may use its judicial discretion in determining child support in 2 circumstances where combined adjusted parental gross income exceeds the 3 uppermost levels of the guideline table.

4 (8) The child support obligation in a split custody arrangement shall be calculated in 5 the following manner:

6 (a) Two (2) separate child support obligation worksheets shall be prepared, one 7 (1) for each household, using the number of children born of the relationship 8 in each separate household, rather than the total number of children born of 9 the relationship.

10 (b) The parent with the greater monthly obligation amount shall pay the 11 difference between the obligation amounts, as determined by the worksheets, 12 to the other parent.

13 (9) The child support guidelines table is as follows:
