2 certain judicial proceedings involving a child.

3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA:

4 Section 1. That § 26-7A-87 be AMENDED.

- 5 26-7A-87. Adjudication subject to intermediate appeal--Dispositional
6 proceedings--Interim dispositional decree.

7 If the court finds the allegations of the petition are supported by clear and 8 convincing evidence in cases concerning an alleged abused or neglected child or are 9 supported by evidence beyond a reasonable doubt in cases concerning an alleged child in 10 need of supervision or an alleged delinquent child, the court shall adjudicate the child 11 accordingly and shall issue findings of fact, conclusions of law and an order of adjudication 12 stating the child to be an abused or neglected child as defined in chapter 26-8A, a child in 13 need of supervision as defined in chapter 26-8B, or a delinquent child as defined in chapter 14 26-8C. Written findings of fact and conclusions of law are only required in delinquency or 15 child in need of supervision adjudicatory proceedings if there is a contested evidentiary
16 hearing or if the disposition is a commitment to the Department of Corrections. The order 17 of adjudication is an intermediate order and is subject to intermediate appeal with the 18 permission of the court according to the rules of procedure governing civil appeals.

19 The court shall proceed with the dispositional phase of the proceedings and shall issue 20 an order setting the time, date, and place of the initial dispositional hearing and 21 prescribing notice of the hearing. However, the court may proceed immediately with the 22 initial dispositional hearing with the consent of the state, the child and the child's parents, 23 guardian, or custodian or other parties who are respondents in the action.

24 On completion of the adjudicatory hearing resulting in adjudication of the child, the 25 court may issue an interim dispositional decree governing custody, placement, care,

1 shelter, or detention of the child as determined by the court pending the initial 2 dispositional hearing and any continuance of it.

3 Section 2. That § 26-7A-90 be AMENDED.

4 26-7A-90. Evidence heard at dispositional hearing--Interim decree--Final 5 decree.

6 After adjudication, the court shall conduct dispositional hearings and consider 7 evidence regarding proper disposition of the child best serving the interests of the child 8 with due regard to the rights and interests of the child's parents, guardian, custodian,
9 other parties respondent, the public, and the state. Dispositional evidence may include 10 social study reports, mental and medical examination and evaluation reports, homestudy 11 investigation reports, and any other evidence related to appropriate disposition of the 12 child.

13 Following the dispositional hearing, the court shall issue an interim decree of 14 disposition. During the dispositional phase, the court shall balance the rights and interests 15 of the child and the respective parties, including the public and the state.

16 On completion of the final dispositional hearing, the court shall issue findings of fact, 17 conclusions of law, and a final decree of disposition. Written findings of fact and 18 conclusions of law are only required in delinquency or child in need of supervision 19 dispositional proceedings if there is a contested evidentiary hearing or if the disposition is 20 a commitment to the Department of Corrections. ~~The decree shall be~~ is the final order of 21 the court for the purpose of an appeal by any party according to the rules of procedure 22 governing civil appeals.
