

1 A RESOLUTION honoring and commending the Louisville Fire Department
2 firefighters, Louisville Metro Police Department officers, and Louisville emergency 3 medical services personnel involved in the recent rescue on the Clark Memorial Bridge.

4 WHEREAS, at around noon on Friday, March 1, 2024, a multi-vehicle collision
5 involving two passenger vehicles, a pickup truck, and a semitruck occurred on the Clark 6 Memorial Bridge, which spans the Ohio River and connects Louisville, Kentucky, and 7 Jeffersonville, Indiana; and

8 WHEREAS, the end result of the chain-reaction accident was the semitruck going 9 through the guardrails and partially off the bridge, with half the vehicle hanging off the 10 bridge and the cab of the vehicle dangling precipitously some 60 feet above the Ohio 11 River; and

12 WHEREAS, responding with lightning speed, a Louisville Fire Department rescue 13 squad arrived at the accident site and hooked Firefighter Bryce Carden into a harness 14 from a ladder truck to reach the semi's driver, secure her, and lift her back onto the 15 bridge, less than an hour after the accident occurred; and

16 WHEREAS, although he is being hailed as a hero, Bryce Carden is quick to 17 recognize the entire team for their part in the rescue, stating, "Like I was telling chief. It 18 all goes back to training we've done this probably 100 times. We have good leaders that 19 have taught how to take care of the site situation."; and

20 WHEREAS, Louisville Fire Department personnel responding with Firefighter
21 Carden that day included: from Engine Company 5, Assistant Captain James Lucas, 22 firefighters Kamron Joyer, Maximillian Eschmann, and Braydon Wright; from Truck 2, 23 Captain Chad Rodgers, Sergeant Joseph Berrow, Sergeant Jason Huddleston, and 24 firefighter Lee Miles; from Rescue 2, stationed on the bridge, Captain Andy Hogan, 25 Captain Michael Renn, Sergeant Amber Miller, and firefighters James Haley, Beth 26 Burkhead, and James Donahoe; from Rescue 2, on the river, Sergeant Josiah Bailey and 27 Sergeant Troy Williams; from Rescue 6, on the river, Assistant Captain Vincent Eisner,

1 and firefighters Jonathan O'Dell, Joseph Bailey, and Noah Forrest; from Rescue 11,
2 Captain Aaron Silliman, Sergeant Torian Vaughn, and firefighters James Nauert and Juan
3 Saavedra; as well as Major Christopher Verdi, Major Michael Stinson, Captain Ricky
4 Greathouse, Major Jonathan Jones, Lieutenant Colonel Clarence Gamble, Lieutenant 5 Colonel Paul Cooper, Lieutenant Colonel Terence Delaney, and Chief Bruce O'Neill; and

6 WHEREAS, Louisville Metro Police Department personnel who responded to the 7 site to assist with the rescue and secure the scene included: Lieutenant Craig Browning; 8 Sergeants Ron Fey, Jeffrey Rodgers, and Robert Ward; Detective Matthew Martin; and 9 Officers Jennifer Del Valle, Justin Bale, Jackson Evans, Raymond Wonka, Michael 10 Wease, Zacharia Wright, Marcus McDowell, Tyler Story, Robert Jones, Stephen Payne, 11 Matthew Montano, Kenneth Cummins II, Clarence Beauford, Umar Alkazov, Jessica 12 Skaggs, and Jordan McKinley; and

13 WHEREAS, Louisville Metro Emergency Medical Services personnel involved in 14 the rescue response included: Major Chris Wetter, Max Schmidt, Isiah Tussey, Karis
15 Bailey, Anthony Wetter, Charles Turner, Lillian McFalda, Madilyn Lawson, and Richard 16 Tudor; and

17 WHEREAS, Louisville Metro Safe personnel involved in the rescue response
18 included: Kelly Jones, Trevin Hunter, Deanna Wetter, Libby Grenough, Kim Riggle, 19 Daniel Montgomery, Mary Smith, Kristen Akers, Robin Miller, Ryan Hobbs, Shari Coty, 20 Sara Sparks, Christal Tobbe, Nick Tinnell, Chaka Mask, Matt Goins, Sandy Chesser, 21 Susan Kohler, and Angie Downes; and

22 WHEREAS, this daring rescue brings into sharp relief the hours of training and 23 dedication members of fire departments across the Commonwealth and the nation put in 24 to be able to respond to unique situations where lives are at risk, and also serves as an 25 example of how fire departments, police, and EMS personnel work together every day to 26 protect the safety and well-being of our nation's citizens;

27 NOW, THEREFORE,

1 Be it resolved by the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of 2 Kentucky:

3 ➡Section 1. The members of the Senate, both individually and collectively, do
4 hereby recognize and honor the brave members of the Louisville Fire Department rescue
5 squad and other firefighters that participated in the daring rescue on the Clark Memorial 6 Bridge on March 1, 2024, as well as all the other first responders involved in the 7 operation, thank them for their continued dedication, bravery, and service, and pray for 8 their continued safety.

9 ➡Section 2. The Clerk of the Senate is directed to transmit a copy of this 10 Resolution to Senator David Yates for presentation to Louisville Mayor Craig Greenberg.
