S. 3702

To award a Congressional Gold Medal, collectively, to the African Americans who served with Union forces during the Civil War, in recognition of their bravery and outstanding service.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

February 17, 2022

Mr. BOOKER introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs

A BILL

- To award a Congressional Gold Medal, collectively, to the African Americans who served with Union forces during the Civil War, in recognition of their bravery and outstanding service.
 - 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
 - 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
 - 3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
 - 4 This Act may be cited as the "United States Colored
 - 5 Troops Congressional Gold Medal Act".
 - 6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.
 - 7 Congress finds the following:

- 1 (1) Since the colonial era, African Americans 2 have served the United States in times of war.
- 3 (2) During the Civil War, approximately 4 200,000 African-American men served in the Union 5 Army and 19,000 African-American men served in 6 the Union Navy.
 - (3) During the Civil War, African-American women were not allowed to formally enlist as soldiers or sailors, though they served as nurses, cooks, spies, and scouts for the Union Army and the Union Navy.
 - (4) While African-American men served in the Navy since its establishment, there was resistance to enlisting them to take up arms for the Union Army at the start of the Civil War.
 - (5) As the Civil War dragged on, President Lincoln broke from the previous policy of his administration and determined that liberating enslaved persons "was a military necessity absolutely essential for the salvation of the Union".
 - (6) The Act entitled "An Act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes", approved July 17, 1862 (commonly known as the "Second Confiscation Act") (12 Stat. 589;

- 1 chapter 195) and the Act of July 17, 1862 (com-
- 2 monly known as the "Military Act of 1862") (12
- 3 Stat. 597; chapter 201) were the first official au-
- 4 thorizations to employ African Americans in the
- 5 Union Army.
- 6 (7) It was not until January 1, 1863, the effec-7 tive date of the Emancipation Proclamation issued
- 8 by President Lincoln, that the Union Army was or-
- 9 dered to receive African-American men.
- 10 (8) On May 22, 1863, the United States War
- 11 Department issued General Order Number 143,
- which established the Bureau of Colored Troops for
- the recruitment and organization of regiments of the
- 14 Union Army composed of African-American men,
- called the United States Colored Troops (referred to
- in this section as "USCT").
- 17 (9) Leaders such as Frederick Douglass encour-
- aged African Americans to enlist to advance the
- cause of citizenship. "Once let the black man get
- upon his person the brass letters, 'U.S.', let him get
- an eagle on his button, and a musket on his shoul-
- der and bullets in his pocket, there is no power on
- [E]arth that can deny that he has earned the right
- to citizenship.", wrote Douglass.

- 1 (10) African-American sailors constituted a sig-2 nificant segment of the Union Navy, making up 20 3 percent of the total enlisted force of the Navy.
- 4 (11) Although there were rank restrictions on 5 African Americans in the Navy before the Civil War, 6 this policy changed after the establishment of the 7 USCT, when the Union Navy started to compete 8 with the Union Army for enlistment of African 9 Americans.
 - (12) Yet, in practice, most African Americans could not advance beyond lowest ranks of "boy" and "landsman."
 - (13) African-American soldiers and sailors served with distinction, honor, and bravery amid racial discrimination and adverse circumstances, including the risk of enslavement and torture if captured.
 - (14) Eighteen members of the USCT and 8 African-American sailors were awarded the Medal of Honor, the highest honor in the United States for bravery in combat.
 - (15) For generations after the Civil War, the contributions of African Americans in the Civil War were excluded from historical memory.
