1 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2 AN ACT TO REQUIRE CITIES AND COUNTIES TO REMOVE PERSONAL
3 INFORMATION FROM WEBSITES MAINTAINED BY COUNTIES AND CITIES
4 WHEN REQUESTED BY CERTAIN PROSECUTORS, PUBLIC DEFENDERS, AND
5 JUDICIAL PERSONNEL, AND TO CLARIFY CERTAIN PERSONNEL RECORDS OF
6 LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS.

7 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

8 SECTION 1. Article 7 of Chapter 153A of the General Statutes is amended by
9 adding a new section to read:

10 "§ 153A-148.2. Removal of personal information from public websites; judicial personnel.

11 (a) For purposes of this section, "personal information" includes the physical address and
12 phone number of the individual, but not the name of the individual.

13 (b) Each county shall develop and make available a process by which any official listed
14 in this subsection may request that the county remove that individual's personal information from 15 any website maintained by the county and available to the general public. The request to remove 16 personal information may also include a request to remove the personal information of the 17 individual's spouse. The following individuals may request the removal of personal information
18 from a county's website:

19 (1) A State judge, justice, or magistrate.

20 (2) A district attorney or assistant district attorney.

21 (3) A prosecutor employed by the North Carolina Department of Justice.

22 (4) A United States Attorney or Assistant United States Attorney.

23 (5) A public defender or assistant public defender.

24 (6) A federal judge.

25 (c) The request must be in writing and include all of the following:

26 (1) The name of the individual making the request.

27 (2) Information indicating the individual is eligible to make the request.

28 (3) The specific personal information to be removed.

29 (d) The county must remove the personal information if properly requested under this
30 section. The personal information removed from the website shall not be placed on the website
31 again unless the county receives a written revocation from the individual who made the original
32 request.

33 (e) Neither the request to remove the personal information nor the revocation of the 34 request is a public record as defined by G.S. 132-1, and the county shall keep the request and any

1 revocation confidential. Personal information removed from the website continues to be a public
2 record if it would otherwise be subject to disclosure under Chapter 132 of the General Statutes.

3 (f) A county and its officers, officials, employees, and agents, both past and present, in
4 their official and individual capacity, shall be immune and held harmless from liability in any
5 action brought by or on behalf of any person injured or harmed by the action or inaction, in good
6 faith, of the county or its officers, officials, employees, and agents in implementing the provisions
7 of this section. However, if the actions of an officer, official, employee, or agent which result in 8 harm were not within the course and scope of the duties of the officer, official, employee, or 9 agent, the officer, official, employee, or agent may be subject to liability as an individual to the 10 extent permitted by the laws of this State."

11 SECTION 2. Article 9 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes is amended by
12 adding a new section to read:

13 "§ 160A-208.2. Removal of personal information from public websites; judicial personnel.

14 (a) For purposes of this section, "personal information" includes the physical address and
15 phone number of the individual, but not the name of the individual.

16 (b) Each city shall develop and make available a process by which any official listed in 17 this subsection may request that the city remove that individual's personal information from any 18 website maintained by the city and available to the general public. The request to remove personal
19 information may also include a request to remove the personal information of the individual's 20 spouse. The following individuals may request the removal of personal information from a city's 21 website:

22 (1) A State judge, justice, or magistrate.

23 (2) A district attorney or assistant district attorney.

24 (3) A prosecutor employed by the North Carolina Department of Justice.

25 (4) A United States Attorney or Assistant United States Attorney.

26 (5) A public defender or assistant public defender.

27 (6) A federal judge.

28 (c) The request must be in writing and include all of the following:

29 (1) The name of the individual making the request.

30 (2) Information indicating the individual is eligible to make the request.

31 (3) The specific personal information to be removed.

32 (d) The city must remove the personal information if properly requested under this
33 section. The personal information removed from the website shall not be placed on the website
34 again unless the city receives a written revocation from the individual who made the original
35 request.

36 (e) Neither the request to remove the personal information nor the revocation of the 37 request is a public record as defined by G.S. 132-1, and the city shall keep the request and any
38 revocation confidential. Personal information removed from the website continues to be a public
39 record if it would otherwise be subject to disclosure under Chapter 132 of the General Statutes.

40 (f) A city and its officers, officials, employees, and agents, both past and present, in their
41 official and individual capacity, shall be immune and held harmless from liability in any action
42 brought by or on behalf of any person injured or harmed by the action or inaction, in good faith,
43 of the city or its officers, officials, employees, and agents in implementing the provisions of this
44 section. However, if the actions of an officer, official, employee, or agent which result in harm
45 were not within the course and scope of the duties of the officer, official, employee, or agent, the 46 officer, official, employee, or agent may be subject to liability as an individual to the extent
47 permitted by the laws of this State."

48 SECTION 3. G.S. 153A-98(c4) reads as rewritten:

49 "(c4) Even if considered part of an employee's personnel file, the The following information
50 regarding any sworn law enforcement officer employed by the county shall not be disclosed to 51 an employee or any other person, unless disclosed in accordance with G.S. 132-1.4, or in
