

115TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. RES. 966

In the matter of Maxine Waters.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 26, 2018

Mr. NORMAN (for himself, Mr. GIBBS, Mr. BIGGS, Mr. DUNCAN of South Carolina, Mr. ABRAHAM, Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania, and Mr. ROKITA) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Ethics

RESOLUTION

In the matter of Maxine Waters.

Whereas Benjamin Franklin was quoted saying, “The freedom of speech is the pillar of a free government”;

Whereas in his first inaugural address, Thomas Jefferson said that, “Every difference of opinion is not a difference of principle”;

Whereas Abraham Lincoln stated that, “There is no grievance that is a fit object of redress by mob law”;

Whereas the First Amendment of the Constitution provides for the freedom of speech;

Whereas the First Amendment of the Constitution provides for the right to assemble;

Whereas Trump administration officials have been targets of recent protests from those who disagree philosophically and politically;

Whereas many Trump administration officials and supporters have been denied service in restaurants, targeted at their personal homes, yelled at, spit on, or been victims of hateful speech;

Whereas this political climate of disrespect only exacerbates the political divide in America;

Whereas, on June 23, 2018, Representative Maxine Waters (CA-43) attended a political rally in Los Angeles;

Whereas she publicly denounced the Trump administration and all those who support the administration's agenda;

Whereas the Congresswoman told her supporters and all those who disagree with the Trump administration, to "push back on them and . . . tell them they're not welcome anymore, anywhere";

Whereas she also said that she has "no sympathy for these people";

Whereas this rhetoric is dangerous, vile, and lacks basic civility;

Whereas Representative Maxine Waters has called for segregation and abuse of those who disagree politically, ideologically, and philosophically from her and her supporters;

Whereas all public officials should honor the values of free speech by encouraging debate, not condoning hatred;

Whereas article I, section 5, clause 2 of the Constitution states that, "Each House may . . . punish its Members for disorderly behavior"; and

Whereas the words and actions of Representative Maxine Waters constitute disorderly behavior: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That—

2 (1) the House of Representatives does censure
3 and condemn Representative Maxine Waters for her
4 intolerable response to the policies of the Trump Administration on June 23, 2018, for her quest for
5 hostility and violence, and for her uncivilized remarks about President Trump, officials of his administration, and those who support his administration;
6 tion;

7 (2) Representative Maxine Waters forthwith
8 present herself in the well of the House for the pronouncement of censure; and 9 nouncement of censure; and

10 (3) Representative Maxine Waters be censured
11 with the public reading of this resolution by the
12 Speaker.
13 Speaker.
