 8 GRAMS; NATIONAL DATABASE.

9 “(a) PROGRAM METHODOLOGY.—Each demonstra-
 10 tion program established by a State or Indian tribe in ac-
 11 cordance with section 203(b)(12) shall use a uniform, re-
 12 search-based home study methodology for the evaluation
 13 of prospective foster parents and adoptive parents (devel-
 14 oped by the Secretary after consultation with stakeholders 15 and professionals in the field of child welfare) that shall—

16 “(1) incorporate—

17 “(A) information gathering tools, includ-
 18 ing—

19 “(i) an initial written questionnaire
 20 that is a uniform set of closed-ended ques-
 21 tions with a variety of possible answers
 22 that provides significant family informa-
 23 tion;

24 “(ii) a secondary in-person question-
 25 naire that is administered in a private set-

1 ting in the home, and, if applicable, with 2 both applicants present together; and

3 “(iii) guidelines that describe stand-
4 ardized questions that an individual serv-
5 ing as a reference for the applicant uses in 6 writing a reference letter, to be sent di-
7 rectly to such individual and not shared
8 with the applicant, and which is consistent
9 with the questionnaires described in 10 clauses (i) and (ii);

11 “(B) a written guidance document to assist
12 home study practitioners in performing a psy-
13 chosocial evaluation of the applicant that—

14 “(i) provides instructions on how to 15 systematically analyze information learned
16 from the information gathering tools de-
17 scribed in subparagraph (A) in order to 18 identify specific strengths and concerns of 19 the applicant;

20 “(ii) provides sufficient information
21 for the home study practitioner to deter-
22 mine the significance of behaviors and 23 events in the applicant’s life in relation to 24 being a successful foster care or adoption
25 provider; and

1 “(iii) includes a rating system that
2 will be incorporated into the home study
3 report described in subparagraph (C); and

4 “(C) a model home study report that may,
5 at the discretion of the Secretary, be cus-
6 tomized by a State or Indian tribe as necessary
7 to comply with State or tribal and local regula-
8 tions and requirements;

9 “(2) ensure ongoing training of home study cer-
10 tified personnel; and

11 “(3) designate a home study auditor to ensure 12 quality control and accuracy of information provided
13 to placing agencies.

14 “(b) GRANTS.—The Secretary shall make grants to 15 States and Indian tribes to enable and encourage the 16 States and Indian tribes to establish demonstration pro-
17 grams in accordance with section 203(b)(12).

18 “(c) NATIONAL DATABASE.—The Secretary shall es-
19 tablish a secure national database of home study reports
20 filed by home study practitioners using the home study
21 methodology described in subsection (a). Such database
22 shall be accessible only to State and tribal foster care and 23 adoption agencies, or a designated entity, as determined
24 by the lead agency in the State, to assist with the selection
25 of prospective foster parents and adoptive parents.

1 “(d) CONDITION ON PARTICIPATION IN DEMONSTRA-
2 TION PROJECT.—As a condition for participating in the 3 demonstration program under section 203(b)(12), a State
4 or Indian tribe shall agree to recognize as valid all home
5 study reports listed in the database described in subsection
6 (c), including such reports filed by other States or Indian 7 tribes.

8 “(e) EVALUATION.—The Secretary shall enter into a 9 contract with an independent entity to—

10 “(1) carry out a periodic evaluation of the home
11 study methodology established under subsection (a)
12 and the demonstration programs established in ac-
13 cordance with section 203(b)(12); and

14 “(2) submit to the Secretary a report that in-
15 cludes—

16 “(A) a description of the extent to which 17 such methodology—

18 “(i) meets the requirements of each of 19 paragraphs (1) through (3) of subsection
20 (a);

21 “(ii) expedites the screening of care-
22 givers to promote more family-based care
23 over institutional care for children;

1 “(iii) provides cost savings to State or
2 Indian tribe foster care and adoption sys-
3 tems;

4 “(iv) reduces the number of children
5 waiting for foster care or adoptive place-
6 ment; and

7 “(v) reduces the number of prospec-
8 tive families waiting for foster care or 9 adoptive placement; and

10 “(B) recommendations for expanding the 11 demonstration program and home study meth-
12 odology to all States and Indian tribes.”; and

13 (3) in section 205(b) (42 U.S.C. 5115(b)), by 14 adding at the end the following: “The Secretary may 15 allocate such sums as the Secretary determines to be 16 appropriate from the funds appropriated under sub-
17 section (a) for activities under section 203(b)(12)
18 and 203A.”.
