

116TH CONGRESS 1ST SESSION H.R. 2320

To direct the President to submit to Congress a report on fugitives currently residing in other countries whose extradition is sought by the United States and related matters.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

April 12, 2019

Mr. Smith of New Jersey (for himself and Mr. Sires) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs

A BILL

- To direct the President to submit to Congress a report on fugitives currently residing in other countries whose extradition is sought by the United States and related matters.
  - 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
  - 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
  - 3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
  - 4 This Act may be cited as the "Walter Patterson and
  - 5 Werner Foerster Justice and Extradition Act".
  - 6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.
  - 7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

- 1 (1) Extradition is the formal surrender of a 2 person by one state to another state for prosecution 3 or punishment.
  - (2) Refusal by other nations to extradite or otherwise render to the United States fugitives within their jurisdiction who have been convicted of committing crimes on United States soil impedes the judicial process and undermines the rule of law.
  - (3) The United States has bilateral extradition treaties with more than 100 nations and an extradition agreement with the European Union.
  - (4) The United States has bilateral extradition treaties with Portugal and Cuba.
  - (5) The failure to bring criminal fugitives to justice in the United States is an affront to the victims of those crimes.
  - (6) The refusal of Portugal, a close ally and good friend of the United States, to extradite George Wright, convicted of the 1962 murder of Walter Patterson, fugitive from justice since his 1970 escape from the Bayside State Prison in New Jersey, is a deplorable example of a failure to extradite, and has caused ongoing suffering and stress to Mr. Patterson's surviving family and friends.

- 1 (7) The refusal of Cuba to extradite or other2 wise render Joanne Chesimard, an escaped convict
  3 who fled to Cuba after killing Werner Foerster, New
  4 Jersey State Trooper, is a deplorable example of a
  5 failure to extradite or otherwise render, and has
  6 caused ongoing suffering and stress to Mr.
  7 Foerster's surviving family and friends.
- 8 (8) The refusals to extradite George Wright
  9 and Joanne Chesimard are emblematic of a number
  10 of such refusals from other nations, such that
  11 United States policies and efforts to secure extra12 dition and the extradition policies of countries from 13 which the United States seeks extradition and ren14 dition bear further examination.
  - (9) Such examination will be promoted by the issuance of a public report on the status of extradition requests by the United States and related matters.
- (b) Purpose.—The purpose of this Act is to provide information necessary to evaluate and thereby strengthen
  United States Government efforts to extradite fugitives.
- 22 SEC. 3. SENSE OF CONGRESS.
- It is the sense of Congress that in meetings with for-24 eign officials of countries from which the United States 25 seeks the extradition of fugitives, United States ambas-

- 1 sadors and other senior officials should prioritize advocacy
- 2 on fulfilling United States extradition requests, including
- 3 extradition of George Wright, an escaped convict and the
- 4 murderer of Walter Patterson of New Jersey, and Joanne
- 5 Chesimard, an escaped convict and the murderer of New
- 6 Jersey State Trooper Werner Foerster.

7 SEC. 4. REPORT.

- 8 (a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 270 days after the
- 9 date of the enactment of this Act, and not later than the
- 10 end of each 12-month period thereafter, the President
- 11 shall submit to the appropriate congressional committees
- 12 a report on the following:
- 13 (1) The number of fugitives, and others for
- whom the United States Government is seeking ex-
- tradition or rendition, currently residing in other
- 16 countries whose extradition is sought by the United
- 17 States and a list of those countries.
- 18 (2) Diplomatic and other efforts, if any, the
- 19 United States has undertaken to secure the return
- of such fugitives.
- 21 (3) The average length of time these cases have
- been outstanding.
- 23 (4) How many of these cases have been resolved
- to the satisfaction of the United States.

1	(5) Factors that have been barriers to the reso-
2	lution of these cases.
3	(6) Information on the number of United States
4	citizens whose extradition has been sought by other
5	countries during the past 5 years, a list of those
6	countries seeking extradition, and the outcomes of
7	those requests.
8	(b) FORM.—The report required by subsection (a)
9	shall be submitted in unclassified form, but may include
10	a classified annex if necessary.
11	(c) Definition.—In this section, the term "appro-
12	priate congressional committees" means—
13	(1) the Committee on Foreign Affairs and the
14	Committee on the Judiciary of the House of Rep-
15	resentatives; and
16	(2) the Committee on Foreign Relations and
17	the Committee on the Judiciary of the Senate
