3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE; TABLE OF CONTENTS.

4 (a) SHORT TITLE; TABLE OF CONTENTS.—This Act 5 may be cited as the “International Violence Against 6 Women Act of 2017”.

8 this Act is as follows:

RESPOND TO GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE GLOBALLY

TITLE II—OVERSIGHT AND ACCOUNTABILITY

- Sec. 201. Definitions.
 Sec. 202. Office of Global Women's Issues.
 Sec. 203. Senior Coordinator for Gender Equality and Women's Empowerment.
 Sec. 204. Briefing.

1 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

2 Congress makes the following findings:

3 (1) An estimated one out of every three women 4 throughout the world will be beaten, coerced into 5 sex, or otherwise abused in her lifetime.

6 (2) Up to 70 percent of women in some coun-7 tries report experiencing gender-based violence at 8 some point in their lives.

9 (3) Intimate partner violence is the most preva-10 lent form of violence against women, preventing 11 them from playing more active roles in the social, 12 economic, and political development of their commu-
 13 nities.

14 (4) Sexual violence among adolescents and pre-15 adolescents is alarmingly high. National surveys in 16 Swaziland, Tanzania, Zimbabwe, Kenya, and Haiti
 17 have found that between 28 and 38 percent of girls 18 and between 9 and 18 percent of boys report experi-

1 encing sexual violence before reaching 18 years of 2 age.

3 (5) Adult male respondents in 6 countries who 4 had experienced violence as children were signifi-
5 cantly more likely to report perpetrating intimate 6 partner violence themselves according to the Inter-7 national Men and Gender Equality Survey dataset.

8 (6) Gender-based violence harms economies and 9 the workers that fuel them. Despite underreporting, 10 striking statistics document prevalent forms of gen-11 der-based violence globally that affect the world of 12 work. Worldwide, women are concentrated in low-13 wage, insecure jobs in workplaces where they lack 14 bargaining power, protections against gender-based 15 violence, safe and confidential reporting systems, re-16 course to justice, or access to legal, medical, and 17 psychosocial services.

18 (7) Women living in poverty are particularly 19 vulnerable to gender-based violence. Lack of eco-20 nomic opportunities often compels women to use 21 desperate and dangerous means to provide for them-
22 selves and their families, risking significant exposure 23 to sexual exploitation and abuse for both women and 24 their children.

1 (8) Country studies indicate that the risk of 2 HIV among women who have experienced violence 3 may be up to three times higher than among those 4 who have not experience violence. The World Health
5 Organization found that women who experience inti-
6 mate partner violence are at more than 50 percent
7 greater risk of HIV infection, and in some instances 8 their risk of HIV infection increases four-fold.
9 Women living with HIV are more likely to experi-
10 ence violence than other women, and fear of violence
11 can prevent women from accessing HIV/AIDS infor-12 mation and receiving treatment and counseling.

13 (9) Addressing gender inequality and gender-14 based violence is essential to reducing HIV risk and 15 increasing access to HIV prevention, care and treat-16 ment services for women and men. The President's 17 Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief (PEPFAR) sup-18 ports significant work in the field to incorporate ef-
19 forts to prevent and respond to gender-based vio-
20 lence into existing HIV treatment and prevention 21 programs.

22 (10) Prevalence of sexual and physical violence
23 is higher among persons with disabilities, particu-
24 larly for adolescents and intimate partners with dis-25 abilities, and for men and women with intellectual

1 impairments living in institutions. The World Health
2 Organization reports that rates of gender-based vio-3 lence are between 4 and 10 times greater among 4 persons with disabilities compared to non-disabled 5 persons.

6 (11) Displaced, refugee, and stateless women
7 and girls in humanitarian emergencies, conflict set-8 tings, and natural disasters face extreme violence 9 and threats, including—

10 (A) being forced to exchange sex for food 11 and humanitarian supplies; and 12 (B) being at increased risk of rape, sexual 13 exploitation, and abuse.

14 (12) Rape and sexual assault against women
15 and girls are used to torture, intimidate, and ter-16 rorize communities. Rape and sexual assault are 17 used as tools of war in conflict zones, including the 18 Democratic Republic of Congo, Iraq, Syria, Afghani-19 stan, Colombia, and South Sudan.

20 (13) Child and forced marriage of girls—

21 (A) is a harmful practice that deprives 22 girls of their dignity and rights and creates bar-23 riers to development for communities and coun-24 tries;

1 (B) is projected to affect more than 2 140,000,000 girls who will become brides be-3 tween 2011 and 2020;

4 (C) can prematurely end girls' education,
5 increase vulnerability to gender-based violence, 6 and significantly raise the risk of maternal and 7 infant morbidity or mortality, including the risk 8 of obstetric fistula and sexually transmitted dis-9 eases, including HIV/AIDS; and 10 (D) is perpetuated by poverty, a lack of 11 educational or employment opportunities for 12 girls, a lack of legal policies and enforcement of 13 laws, and religious, cultural, and social factors 14 related to girls' perceived lack of value, factors 15 which become particularly acute in conflict and 16 disaster settings where fears of sexual violence 17 and overstretched coping mechanisms often 18 drive child and forced marriage.

19 (14) Female genital mutilation/cutting (FGM/20 C) is carried out most often on girls between infancy 21 and 15 years of age and has impacted more than 22 125,000,000 girls and women who are alive today.
23 FGM/C can cause long-term health problems, includ-24 ing infertility, complications in childbirth, and in-25 creased risk of newborn deaths.

1 (15) World Bank data shows that gender in-2 equality directly corresponds to increased levels of 3 political and economic instability within states. Gen-4 der-based violence impedes women’s meaningful par-
 5 ticipation in social, political, and economic spheres, 6 which is essential to the stability and democratiza-
 7 tion of a country. Since women disproportionately 8 experience gender-based violence during conflict and 9 post-conflict reconstruction, they can play a pivotal 10 role in preventing, mitigating, and resolving conflict, 11 and countering extremism.

12 (16) Gender-based violence is a contributing 13 factor to human trafficking. Experts in the field
 14 have reported that women and girls who have experi-15 enced gender-based violence and live in societies that 16 tolerate severe gender discrimination appear to be 17 more vulnerable to being trafficked. Comprehensive 18 efforts to reduce human trafficking must include ef-
 19 forts to prevent and respond to gender-based vio-
 20 lence due to the intertwined relationship of the two 21 crimes.

22 (17) Faith-based organizations and faith lead-23 ers are key partners in the ongoing efforts to pre-24 vent and respond to gender-based violence. When 25 properly engaged and equipped with knowledge and

1 resources, such organizations and leaders can play a 2 significant part in changing behaviors and norms 3 and reducing gender-based violence. Particularly in 4 countries that lack effective legal frameworks to ad-
5 dress gender-based violence, such faith-based organi-6 zations and faith leaders have the standing and au-
7 thority to address harmful practices, such as child 8 marriage, intimate partner abuses, and acid throw-9 ing.

10 SEC. 3. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

11 It is the policy of the United States—

12 (1) to take effective action to prevent and re-

16 proved public health;

17 (2) to systematically integrate and coordinate 18 efforts to prevent and respond to violence against

15 the family, community, local, national, and inter-

17 against women and girls around the world;

19 sonnel of professional foreign military and police 20 forces and judicial officials, including specific and 21 thorough instruction on preventing and responding 22 to violence against women and girls around the 23 world;

1 (8) to engage men and boys as partners, as an 2 essential element of making sustained reductions in 3 violence against women and girls;

4 (9) to include the prevention of child and forced 5 marriage as an important part of United States
 6 Government efforts to prevent violence against girls 7 and promote gender equality and global health;

8 (10) to require that all United States contrac-9 tors and grantees establish appropriate policies and 10 take effective measures to prevent violence against 11 women and girls and sexual exploitation and abuse 12 within their workforce;

13 (11) to exert sustained international leadership
 14 to prevent and respond to violence against women 15 and girls, including in bilateral and multilateral fora;
