A BILL

To secure the Federal voting rights of persons when released from incarceration.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.
- 4 This Act may be cited as the "Democracy Restoration
- 5 Act of 2019".
- 6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.
- 7 Congress makes the following findings:

- 1 (1) The right to vote is the most basic constitu-2 tive act of citizenship. Regaining the right to vote 3 reintegrates individuals with criminal convictions 4 into free society, helping to enhance public safety.
  - (2) Article I, section 4, of the Constitution grants Congress ultimate supervisory power over Federal elections, an authority which has repeatedly been upheld by the United States Supreme Court.
  - (3) Basic constitutional principles of fairness and equal protection require an equal opportunity for citizens of the United States to vote in Federal elections. The right to vote may not be abridged or denied by the United States or by any State on account of race, color, gender, or previous condition of servitude. The 13th, 14th, 15th, 19th, 24th, and 26th Amendments to the Constitution empower Congress to enact measures to protect the right to vote in Federal elections. The 8th Amendment to the Constitution provides for no excessive bail to be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.
  - (4) There are 3 areas in which discrepancies in State laws regarding criminal convictions lead to unfairness in Federal elections—

1 (A) the lack of a uniform standard for vot-2 ing in Federal elections leads to an unfair dis-3 parity and unequal participation in Federal 4 elections based solely on where a person lives; (B) laws governing the restoration of vot-6 ing rights after a criminal conviction vary 7 throughout the country and persons in some States can easily regain their voting rights 8 9 while in other States persons effectively lose 10 their right to vote permanently; and 11 (C) State disenfranchisement laws dis-12 proportionately impact racial and ethnic minori-13 ties. 14 (5) State disenfranchisement laws vary widely. 15 Two States do not disenfranchise individuals with 16 criminal convictions at all. In 34 States, individuals 17 with convictions may not vote while they are on pa-18 role and 30 of those States disenfranchise individ-19 uals on felony probation as well. In 12 States, a con-20 viction can result in lifetime disenfranchisement. 21 (6) Several States deny the right to vote to in-22 dividuals convicted of certain misdemeanors. 23 (7) In 2016, an estimated 6,100,000 citizens of the United States, or about 1 in 40 adults in the United States, could not vote as a result of a felony conviction. Of the 6,100,000 citizens barred from voting then, only 22 percent were in prison. By contrast, 77 percent of persons disenfranchised then resided in their communities while on probation or parole or after having completed their sentences. Approximately 3,100,000 citizens who had completed their sentences were disenfranchised due to restrictive State laws. As of November 2018, the lifetime ban for persons with certain felony convictions was eliminated through a Florida ballot initiative. As a result, as many as 1,400,000 people are now eligible to have their voting rights restored. In 6 States—Alabama, Florida, Kentucky, Mississippi, Tennessee, and Virginia—more than 7 percent of the total population is disenfranchised.

(8) In those States that disenfranchise individuals post-sentence, the right to vote can be regained in theory, but in practice this possibility is often granted in a non-uniform and potentially discriminatory manner. Disenfranchised individuals sometimes must either obtain a pardon or an order from the Governor or an action by the parole or pardon board, depending on the offense and State. Individuals convicted of a Federal offense often have additional barriers to regaining voting rights.

(9) State disenfranchisement laws disproportionately impact racial and ethnic minorities. As of 2016, more than 7 percent of the voting-age African-American population, or 2,200,000 African-Americans, were disenfranchised. One out of every 13 African-Americans were unable to vote because of felony disenfranchisement, which is a rate more than 4 times greater than non-African-Americans. 7.4 percent of African-Americans were disenfranchised whereas 1.8 percent of non-African-Americans were. In 2016, in 4 States—Florida (23 percent), Kentucky (22 percent), Tennessee (21 percent), and Virginia (20 percent)—more than 1 in 5 African-Americans were unable to vote because of prior convictions.

(10) Latino citizens are also disproportionately disenfranchised based upon their disproportionate representation in the criminal justice system. If current incarceration trends hold, the lifetime likelihood of incarceration for males born in 2001 is 17 percent for Latinos, in contrast to less than 6 percent for non-Latino White men. When analyzing the data across 10 States, Latinos generally have disproportionately higher rates of disenfranchisement compared to their presence in the voting age population.

- 1 In 6 out of 10 States studied in 2003, Latinos con-
- 2 stituted more than 10 percent of the total number
- of persons disenfranchised by State felony laws. In
- 4 States (California, 37 percent; New York, 34 per-
- 5 cent; Texas, 30 percent; and Arizona, 27 percent),
- 6 Latinos were disenfranchised by a rate of more than
- 7 25 percent.
- 8 (11) Disenfranchising citizens who have been
- 9 convicted of a criminal offense and who are living
- and working in the community serves no compelling
- 11 State interest and hinders their rehabilitation and
- reintegration into society.
- 13 (12) State disenfranchisement laws can sup-
- press electoral participation among eligible voters by
- discouraging voting among family and community
- 16 members of disenfranchised persons. Future elec-
- toral participation by the children of disenfranchised
- parents may be impacted as well.
- 19 (13) The United States is the only Western de-
- 20 mocracy that permits the permanent denial of voting
- 21 rights for individuals with felony convictions.
- 22 SEC. 3. RIGHTS OF CITIZENS.
- The right of an individual who is a citizen of the
- 24 United States to vote in any election for Federal office
- 25 shall not be denied or abridged because that individual has

- 1 been convicted of a criminal offense unless such individual
- 2 is serving a felony sentence in a correctional institution
- 3 or facility at the time of the election.
