Utah Code Sections Affected:

ENACTS:

53G-10-207, Utah Code Annotated 1953

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the state of Utah:

Section 1. Section 53G-10-207 is enacted to read:

53G-10-207. Personal privacy for employee.

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Employee" means:

(i) "administrative personnel" as the term is defined in Section 53G-10-206; and

(ii) "instructional personnel" as the term is defined in Section 53G-10-206.

(b) "LEA" means the same as the term is defined in Section 53E-1-102.

(c) "Required technology" means an application, software, or other technologies for work-related duties without which an employee could not reasonably complete necessary or essential job functions or engage in emergency situations.

(d) "Work-related contact information" means:

(i) private or work provided phone numbers used for work purposes;

(ii) email addresses provided by an employer or used primarily for work functions;

(iii) work mail addresses, including physical addresses, post office boxes, and other mailing details used to send or receive work-related communications or documents;

(iv) logins, usernames, access codes, passwords, or other credentials used to access accounts, systems, documents, records, or services provided in relation to an employee's job duties; and

(v) messaging accounts, forum memberships, directory listings, distribution lists, committee or group enrollments.

(2) An LEA or the state board may not sell or otherwise transfer an employee's work-related contact information to a third-party.

(3) An LEA or the state board may not distribute an employee's work-related contact information in a manner that would interfere with an employee's ability to access or use work-related accounts, contacts, email lists, or other contact information resources necessary to perform their job duties.

(4) An LEA may not require an employee to download, install, access, or otherwise use required technology on a personally-owned electronic device if use of the required technology contains terms, conditions, or data sharing provisions that would allow for access to data or information outside of the required technology.

~~Ĥ→ [(5) If an LEA requires an employee to utilize required technology that the employee reasonably finds to contain objectionable terms and conditions, the LEA shall provide reasonable accommodations to the impacted employee to avoid mandatory usage on the employee's personal device;~~

~~—— [(6)] (5) ←Ĥ~~ An LEA shall provide a reasonable accommodation ~~Ĥ→ [under Subsection (5)] ←Ĥ~~ that allows required usage without accessing an employee's personal device including providing the required technology:

(a) via an LEA-owned and provided electronic device such as a computer, phone, or tablet;

(b) through a secure virtual or remote desktop environment not requiring installation or access credentials on a personal device; or

(c) through similar means that do not obligate personal device usage.

~~Ĥ→ [(7)] (6) ←Ĥ~~ An LEA may not take adverse action against an employee for exercising rights under this section and requesting reasonable accommodations.

~~Ĥ→ [(8)] (7) ←Ĥ~~ An employee may file a written complaint with the state board alleging violations of this chapter.

~~Ĥ→ [(9)] (8) ←Ĥ~~ The state board shall investigate any complaint alleging violations under this section and take licensure or corrective action if determined necessary.

Section 2. Effective date.

This bill takes effect on July 1, 2024.
