5 Congress finds that—

7 forces on December 10, 1941, 3 days after the at-8 tack on Pearl Harbor and remained in the hands of 9 the Japanese until June 1944;

10 (2) the prisoners who remained on Guam suf-
11 fered atrocities at the hands of the Japanese, with 12 some prisoners being transported on hell ships to 13 Japanese prisoner of war camps;

14 (3) on December 22, 1941, the Japanese took 15 approximately 1,600 prisoners on Wake Island;

16 (4) approximately 450 members of the Armed

20 (5) Major General Edward King led the com-
21 bined Philippine-United States force of 75,000
22 troops in the defense of the Bataan peninsula, until 23 April 9, 1942, at which point, due to diminishing re-
24 sources and disease, Major General King surren-
25 dered soldiers from the United States and the Com-
26 monwealth of the Philippines into enemy hands;

1 (6) over the next week, the soldiers from the 2 United States and the Philippine Commonwealth
3 were taken prisoner and forced to march 65 miles
4 without food, water, or medical care in what came 5 to be known as the Bataan Death March, where ap-6 proximately 600 members of the Armed Forces and 7 between 5,000 and 10,000 Filipino soldiers died 8 from starvation disease, exposure, exhaustion, and 9 abuse by their captors;

10 (7) on May 6, 1942, the resistance reached its 11 limitations after a weeklong siege and Lieutenant
12 General Wainwright, as authorized by President
13 Roosevelt, surrendered the remaining 11,000 troops
14 on Corregidor Island;

15 (8) on May 10, 1942, the only remaining resist-16 ance force in the archipelago, under the command of 17 Major General William F. Sharp, surrendered after 18 fighting the Japanese from April 29, 1942, to May 19 9, 1942, on the island of Mindanao, at which point
20 Lieutenant General Jonathan Wainwright, as Su-
21 preme Allied Commander, surrendered all Allied
22 Forces in the Philippine archipelago;

23 (9) within the first 40 days 1,600 more United 24 States prisoners died at Camp O'Donnell, a pre-war 25 training camp turned prisoner of war camp, which

1 had substandard conditions, leading to increased dis-
2 ease and malnutrition among the prisoners;

3 (10) in May 1942, the Japanese began trans-
4 ferring prisoners of war by sea to Japan, Taiwan,
5 Korea, Manchuria, Sumatra, Burma, and Siam;

6 (11) during the transfer, prisoners were 7 crammed into cargo holds with little air, food or 8 water for journeys that would last for weeks on what 9 were to be known as the hell ships;

10 (12) many died due to asphyxia, starvation, or 11 dysentery and some prisoners became delirious and 12 unresponsive in an environment of heat, humidity
13 and lack of oxygen, food, and water;

14 (13) estimates of more than 126,000 Allied

18 jured;

19 (14) on June 6, 1942, 6,000 United States

23 members of the Armed Forces died from disease,
24 starvation, beatings, and executions;

1 (15) the campus of the University of Santo
2 Tomás in Manila was converted to the Santo Tomás
3 Internment Camp by the Japanese during their oc-
4 cupation of the Philippines, from January 1942
5 until February 1945;

6 (16) Santo Tomás became the internment camp
7 for United States Army and Navy nurses also known
8 as “the Angels of Bataan and Corregidor”, who con-
9 tinued to serve as a nursing unit while imprisoned
10 and until their liberation;

11 (17) the prisoners who remained in the camps
12 suffered from continued mistreatment, malnutrition,
13 lack of medical care, and horrific conditions;

14 (18) Operation Blacklist began in early 1945 to 15 locate, recover, and repatriate all prisoners of war;

16 (19) over the subsequent decades, these pris-
17 oners formed support groups, were honored in local 18 and State memorials, and told their story to the peo-
